TRIUMPHAL HYMN

No. I

CHORUS

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord, honour and power and glory to God. For in righteousness and truth the Lord giveth judgment. Oh praise ye the Lord, oh praise God our Lord.

Hallelujah!

No. II

CHORUS

Glory be to God our Lord; praise the Lord, all ye His servants, praise and glorify our God; and ye that fear Him, all, both humble and mighty, glorify the Lord.

Hallelujah!

For the omnipotent God hath exalted His Kingdom. Oh be joyful, let all be glad; to Him alone give honour.

No. III

BARITONE SOLO WITH CHORUS

And I saw how the heavens were opened wide, and yonder a snow-white horse, upon it sat One, called steadfast and faithful, who warreth, and judgeth all with righteousness. And he treads the winepress of wrath of the Lord God Almighty. And lo, a great Name hath he written upon his vesture, and upon his girdle, called: A King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Yea, a Lord great above all Lords; He shall reign forever, a King of Kings. Hallelujah! Amen. His Kingdom shall endure for evermore; the Lord is God. Hallelujah! Amen.

Triumphal Hymn Triumphlied

No 1. Chorus. "Hallelujah! Praise the Lord"

Johannes Brahms. Op.55

Solemnly, but with animation

Piano

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems of staves. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The score begins with a dynamic marking of f (forte). The first system shows a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The second system continues with similar rhythmic figures. The third system introduces a largamente (ad libitum) section, indicated by a dotted line and a change in the tempo marking. This section features sustained chords and slower-moving lines. The fourth system continues the largamente section with more complex harmonic textures. The fifth system shows a return to a more rhythmic texture, with a Ped. (pedal) marking. The sixth system concludes with a marc. (marcato) marking and a final flourish. Various performance instructions such as Ped., ***, and A are scattered throughout the score.

No. 2. Chorus. "Glory be to God our Lord"

With moderate animation

The first system of the piano introduction features a treble and bass clef. The treble clef contains a series of chords and moving lines, while the bass clef provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The tempo is marked 'With moderate animation' and the dynamic is 'f'.

The second system continues the piano introduction. The treble clef has more complex chordal textures, and the bass clef continues with rhythmic accompaniment. The dynamic remains 'f'.
