

FOR STAGE OR DRAWING ROOM.

The Libretto, Stage Directions, & Music Complete.

NEW YORK:
Samuel French & Son,
PUBLISHERS,
No. 122 Nassau Street,

LONDON:
SAMUEL FRENCH,
PUBLISHER,
89 STRAND.

BOUND SETS OF PLAYS.

Lacy's Acting Edition Complete.

1,500 plays in 100 vols. of fifteen numbers each, with indexes. Library edition, handsomely bound in half-calf, price two dollars and seventy-five cents per volume. Sold singly or in sets. They are the most perfect edition of plays ever published, and no library can be considered complete without them.

French's Standard and Minor Dramas.

80 vols. of eight plays each, neatly bound in cloth, one dollar and twenty-five cents per volume. This edition comprises all the famous plays in the language, and is just what is required for reference. No club-house should be without them, and every dramatic society should have them. It is very easy to select from them plays exactly suited to each individual of the company, after which it is an easy matter to order the necessary copies.

Lacy's Dramatic Costumes.

In sixty-eight parts of six plates each, beautifully colored, one dollar each part, or complete and elegantly bound, sixty dollars.

"Lacy's invaluable books on costumes give full particulars of every variety of dramatic and historical costume from the period of the ancient Briton to the present day."—Court Journal.

These plates represent all dresses, National, Historical, and Dramatic. They are graphically described in our large catalogue, which gives the name and date of each costume.

French's Descriptive Catalogue.

Containing lists of all the principal editions of Plays, Charades, Costumes, Farce Dramas, Ethiopian Dramas, Operas, Fairy Dramas, Guide Books, Home Plays, Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works, Pantomimes, Reciters, Speakers, etc., etc., sent free to any address.

French's Amateur Catalogue.

Containing a list of plays especially adapted for amateurs, describing each play in the most minute manner, so that what is wanted can be seen at a glance by the manager or committee. Also, a descriptive price list of amateur necessities, such as

Tableau Lights, Burnt Cork, Wigs, Beards, Mustaches, Colored
Fire, Preparations for the Face, Etc., Etc.

Sent free to any address.

SAMUEL FRENCH & SON,

122 Nassau Street, N. Y.